Dear Mr. Casey, or preferably Bill;

We've chatted at a number of O.S.S. functions, most recently on the Intrepid. I was Bill D's first pilot, flying out of Terpsford with Pickard's 138 Squadron doing Halifax drops. John Shaheen, Mike Burke and Lyman Kirkpatrick are old friends of mine going back to NO. II.

The above is simply prelude to the first recommendation I've ever made for CIA personnel consideration. He is:

Enclosed is the complete file including his covering letter to me and some background material. I think it shows why I'm recommending him for your consideration.

I'll not mention that I've made this suggestion but feel free, if you wish, to tell him you're making the contact at my suggestion. I believe you'd be getting an awfully good man.

Cordially,
